

Cindi Heald has been with LakeRidge UMC since 2002. She oversees the Singles Sunday class, DivorceCare, and everything from planning an activity social calendar to decorating and clean up for each weekly event. Cindi's passion is helping the brokenhearted and hurting...to help them understand Jesus' love and find peace by encouraging them to grow stronger in a personal relationship with Christ. Cindi has three children: Angie Heald Goodwin lives in Longview with her husband, Matt; Daughter Kelli and Cindi's granddaughter, Lexi, live in Dallas; and son, Jerry who now lives in Colorado with his wife, Stephanie and their new son, Maclyn Noah. Cindi has served as the Children's Director at FUMC Abilene and Aldersgate UMC in College Station. We in the Single's department believe just because you are single does not mean you have to be alone.
