

Vera has been at LakeRidge since 1991. She has a passion for little children and loves to teach them about Jesus. She supervises the nursery for Sunday School, and childcare for Bible studies and other church-related activities. Vera also organizes and oversees Parents Night Out. She is married to Charlie and they are blessed with two daughters and seven grandchildren.